At the regular meeting of Die Besserang at the Windham high school.

Friday afternoon Rev. Louis M. Flocken, paster of the Methodist Eniscopal church, gave an illustrated lecture upon Egypt. Of all places he had ever visited he preferred Egypt, he said.

Egypt is the mother of civilization. Egypt is the mother of civilization. He ascerted that it was also the hand of mystery. We knew hat very little of the language of the Egyptians until recent years when the famous Rosetta stone was found. He spoke of Egypt as the land of plenty, the grannry of the world. Mr. Flocken then had the sildes thrown upon the screen and described each that took in the trip accress the Modiferrancean and landing in Egypt. "At the time of our landing ing meny of the natives were afflicting meny of the natives and friends from out of the natives were afflicting meny of the screen and described each that took in the trip accress the Modification of the screen and described each that took in the trip accress the Modification of the screen and described each that took in the trip accress the Modification of the screen and the former city chamberlain, who is accused of taking bribes and favoring certain banks in making city deposits.
